

Discovery School English Summer Reading:

9th Grade: Hidden Figures: Young Reader's Edition by Margot Lee Shetterly

10th, 11th, and 12th Grade : I am Malala by Malala Yousafza (not the Jr. Novel)

Elements of a Plot

Exposition	The part of the story when characters and setting are introduced
Conflict	The struggle or problem
	*Character Versus Character
	*Character Versus Nature
	*Character Versus Society
	*Character Versus themselves
3 Stages of Action	Rising Action- Events that increase tension and events that lead up to climax
	Climax- The high point of the story. Usually, at the climax, you can foreshadow the story's ending.
	Falling Action- Tension decreases and everything settles down.
Resolution	Conflict has been solved

Each question should be answered in paragraph format. Use details from the book and your own experiences to answer questions completely. Work must be typed, Times New Roman font, 14 size font, 1.5 spacing (this is the standardized requirements for work turned in for High School). All work is due August 10, 2018, at the beginning of English class and is worth a test grade.
