

Hall of Fame Award

Purpose

UMAPP Hall of Fame Award is given to a person that has achieved outstanding honors within UMAPP Regional Association for their contributions.

Who nominates for this award?

Hall of Fame nomination forms will be available to the membership online and sent via e-blast.

Nominations must be made by a UMAPP

Member. To be eligible for the UMAPP Hall of Fame, a candidate shall have made significant contributions to the promotional products industry within our regional association. Past or current involvement in UMAPP at the administrative level (board or committee) is of primary importance.

The candidate may be living or deceased; retired, or active. Current members of the UMAPP Board of Directors are not eligible. If a candidate has served on the Board, he or she must be off four years before being eligible as a Hall of Fame Nominee.
