

Dragonfly The Poetry Reading

Wednesday, June 27, 2018

7:00 pm to 9:00 pm

HopeWorks of Howard County

inside the Nonprofit Collaborative

9770 Patuxent Woods Drive

Suite 100

Columbia, MD 21046

with Open Mic (time permitting)

highlighting the work of:

Dragonfly Poets & Artists

with special guests:

Saida Agostini

Teri Ellen Cross Davis

Taylor Johnson

Experience the Power of Words...

Please join us as we celebrate the fifth anniversary of Dragonfly Arts Magazine

The evening provides a dynamic opportunity to experience the power of words and the vital role that the arts provide in promoting healing, awareness and change. Please be advised that some material may be unsettling or disturbing in nature.

Who is eligible to read their work?

Poets and visual artists who have been published in any issue of Dragonfly are eligible to read and display artwork at the event and may RSVP their attendance or register to read by emailing dragonfly@wearehopeworks.org. Please indicate your name, poem title and the year the poem was published in Dragonfly. Artists must bring an easel to display their work. In this fifth anniversary of Dragonfly we are excited to welcome special guest poets, Saida Agostini, Teri Ellen Cross Davis and Taylor Johnson.

Open Mic

If time permits, the general public may have the opportunity to read as part of a poetry open mic following the Dragonfly Poetry Reading. Sign-up for the open mic will be at the door. All work must be related to the magazine's themes of life, love, justice, trauma, transformation and hope.

HopeWorks' mission is to support and advocate for people in Howard County affected by sexual and intimate partner violence and to engage the community in creating the change required for violence prevention. Dragonfly arts magazine is made possible by the Howard County Arts Council through a grant from Howard County Government.

HopeWorks • (410) 997- 0304 • 9770 Patuxent Woods Drive • Suite 300 • Columbia MD 21046

wearehopeworks.org

