helping poor people in columbia county ny post bail

PO Box 396 Hudson NY 12534 518.209.7966

Join us for Pie, Prosecco, and Pelegrino to celebrate the founding of the

COLUMBIA COUNTY BAIL FUND (CCBF)

WHEN: Sunday, December 3, 2017
3:00pm to 5:00pm

WHERE: Time & Space Limited
434 Columbia Street, Hudson NY

WHY: Our Mission & Match

Mission: The CCBF, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, posts cash bail for poor people accused of minor crimes in Columbia County. Studies show, jail stays, even as short as 24-hours, increase the likelihood that someone will commit a future crime. CCBF's goal is keep communities safe and level the playing field by providing bail to individuals who do not have the resources that would allow them to return to their families and jobs while awaiting a determination of guilt or innocence.

Match: Your donation will be matched up to $10,000 due to the generosity of The Redlich Horwitz Foundation. Now is the time to leverage your donation!

Learn MORE!

Join us and find out more about the criminal justice system and the role bail plays, including how it disproportionately affects African-Americans and Latinos, and how pretrial detention works against a positive outcome for defendants, their families and the community.

To donate, make checks payable to CCBF, PO Box 396, Hudson NY 12534.

"Under our constitution you are innocent until proven guilty, but if you are stuck in jail waiting for your day in court instead of at home with your kids or at work, chances are you may lose your job and custody of your kids even after one day behind bars, for a crime you may not have committed." – Linda Mussmann
