

A Special Invitation

Meet and greet the captain and crew of the Lois McClure, Sunday, August 27th, 5pm -6:30 pm at Fazool's restaurant on Market Street, Brockport, New York

Schooner Lois McClure's voyage along the Champlain and Erie Canals this summer celebrates the huge undertaking that began on July 4, 1817 when ground was broken for the construction of the Erie Canal.

<https://lcmm.wordpress.com/schooner-lois-mcclure/>

Enjoy An Engaging Presentation of a Kayak Paddle Trip of Lake Champlain

Paul Comstock has paddled all the Canals of NY State, The Hudson River and now Lake Champlain. Come and experience this incredible water way from the cockpit of a kayak. You will find a new excitement about how you can connect a public legacy with your own. More than just a paddle, a legacy journey.

Follow the Revolutionary War route of the First US Naval Battle at Valcour Island.

Q&A on planning your own Lake Champlain or NY State Canal Paddle Trip

Paul is a former resident of Brockport and now resides in Houston, Texas