Rabbi Elizabeth Bahar and Pastor Travis Collins discuss

Covenant and Messiah

Wednesday, March 21, 6:00 PM
at First Baptist Church
600 Governors Drive, Huntsville, AL
Discussing “Covenant”

Tuesday, April 17, 6:00 PM
at Temple B’nai Sholom
103 Lincoln St SE, Huntsville, AL
Discussing “Messiah”
Pastor Travis Collins
First Baptist Church Huntsville

Travis Collins has been pastor of First Baptist Church of Huntsville since March of 2016. Prior to that he was a pastor in Kentucky and Virginia, and a missionary in Venezuela and Nigeria. He is a graduate of Samford University in Birmingham, and earned the Master of Divinity and Doctor of Philosophy degrees from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. He is the author of five books, and his sixth book will be released in August with InterVarsity Press. One of his hobbies is officiating high school football. Travis and his wife, Keri, have three adult children and a growing number of grandchildren.

Rabbi Elizabeth Bahar
Temple B'nai Sholom

Rabbi Elizabeth Bahar was born and raised in Pittsburgh, PA, where she attended Brandeis University and graduated with a degree in Philosophy and minor in Women’s Studies and Jewish Studies. Her desire to continue her studies and to learn Hebrew led her to move to Israel where she studied at Hebrew Union College – Jewish Institute of Religion in Jerusalem. In Huntsville, where she has served since being ordained, she has received the Rabbi Jeffery L. Ballon Interfaith Leadership award from Interfaith Mission Service. She was recently named as one of 33 inspirational rabbis in the country by the Jewish Daily Forward. She has won the Joanie Pious Bayer Young Leadership Award from the Birmingham Jewish Foundation. She is on the board of Interfaith Mission Service and Southeast Clergy Association. Rabbi Bahar proudly has volunteered with the City of Huntsville and supports the city-wide annual interfaith pilgrimage.