Finding Common Ground:

Learning to Work Together Today for a Brighter Tomorrow

Saturday, October 14, 2017

9:30 am - 3:30 pm

Through engaging, hands-on activities, Girl Scout Cadettes will satisfy all requirements to earn their Finding Common Ground badges. Girls will explore the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Museum to learn about the role of compromise in a democratic society through the example of President and Mrs. Ford and will use the exhibits to explore the debate over the Equal Rights Amendment. Girls will also have the opportunity to interview an elected official and apply their own skills to make group decisions.

Limit: 40 participants

Fee: $10/Scout $5/Adult

(cost includes program, pizza lunch, and badge for girls)

Registration Deadline: Friday, October 6, 2017

No Refunds after: Monday, October 9, 2017
