TRAIL DISTILLING CELEBRATES ONE YEAR ANNIVERSARY AND LAUNCHES BARREL CLUB

The First Distillery in the First City West of the Mississippi Since Prohibition

Oregon City, OR, October 31, 2017—Trail Distilling celebrated its one year anniversary this past Friday, October 27, 2017. During the celebratory party, Trail Distilling’s Barrel Club was officially launched. “Whiskey, Gin and Rum lovers have the opportunity to age their very own spirit in a five gallon barrel,” said Sara Brennan, Co-Owner. People can read and sign up for the Barrel Club on Trail Distilling’s website. “You may join as a single, family, group or business. It is completely up to you. Or gift the Barrel Club to someone special! Graduations, anniversaries, deployment homecomings, weddings and any celebrations.”

The advantages of owning your own barrel are:

- For roughly the same price as buying two cases, you get your very own stock of premium spirits.
- The opportunity to taste your spirits as they age and determine when you think they are ready to bottle. We recommend a minimum of six months for the Gin and Rum and a minimum of one year for the Whiskey with aging not to exceed two years.
- Visit and sample when you want – just leave some in the barrel!
- A personalized plaque on your barrel and a certificate of ownership.
- A private bottling and labeling party for your own spirit.
- Includes approximately twenty-four finished bottles and your barrel.

Trail Distilling produces First City Vodka, First City Rum, Trillium Gin and their latest release Trillium Barrel Reserved Gin. Their rye whiskey, grown at their nearby family's farm, will be distilled early winter and put into barrels for aging.

Spirit enthusiasts and new comers alike can find Trail Distilling conveniently located on Hwy 213, in Oregon City, the end of the Oregon Trail. Their 8,500 square foot building contains a dual column reflux German still and inviting Tasting Room where their spirits can be tasted and purchased as well as other merchandise. The Tasting Room is located at 21553 S Hwy 213 in Oregon City and open Fridays and Saturdays 2:00 – 7:00 and Sundays 2:00-6:00 or by appointment. It is also available for private and corporate events.
