PENNIES FOR HEAVEN:

A BRIEF BUT FASCINATING LOOK AT THE
HISTORY OF AMERICAN SYNAGOGUES
AND MONEY – RABBI DAN JUDSON

In this lecture, we will delve into the history of American synagogues through an unlikely source: money. We will also examine a few fascinating and contentious moments in American Jewish history – the creation of the first Reform synagogue, the introduction of dues, the rise and fall of for-profit synagogues – to see how disputes over money reflected the changing values of a Jewish community seeking its place in American society. Our tour of the past will also lend some insight into the future of synagogues at this moment of uncertainty as to their long term viability.

Rabbi Dan Judson, Ph.D. is the Associate Dean of the Hebrew College Rabbinical School. His book Pennies for Heaven: The History of American Synagogues and Money, will be published this winter [Brandeis University Press]. He consults to synagogues across the country on new financial and engagement models and his research on synagogues that have eliminated dues has been featured in The New York Times, The Boston Globe, Haaretz, The New York Jewish Week and Reform Judaism magazine.

This event is free and open to the public. We ask that you consider making a donation of $5 per person

RSVPs greatly appreciated. Please visit our website: teprov.org/form/judson or call the Temple Office at 331-1616

The Feminine Face of God

Teachers-in residence
Rabbi Jill Hammer and Shoshana Jedwab

Deep in kabbalah and hidden corners of the Bible, legacies of the Divine Mother abound. She is known as Cosmic Womb, Holy of Holies, Cloud of Glory, Lady Wisdom, Sabbath Queen and, simply, Earth. Through prayer, chanting, silence and stories we will learn about and experience the feminine face of Judaism.

She is a Tree of Life: The Divine Feminine in Jewish Tradition

For more than a decade, Rabbi Jill Hammer and the musician and educator, Shoshana Jedwab have been training women in sacred leadership in an earth-based, embodied mode that emphasizes transformative ritual. With these experienced teachers, we will explore ancient archetypes that are applicable to spiritual seekers today.

Shabbat Mornings

Early Service in the Fishbein Chapel

The 8 AM Shabbat service in the Fishbein Chapel is a favorite of those who are up early and like an abbreviated davening. This service is lay led. Participants enjoy a warm camaraderie that enhances the spirited singing in the worship experience.

Sanctuary Service in the Main Sanctuary

Each week, services are held at 9:30AM in the Main Sanctuary for the entire Emanu-El community. This service is where members celebrate a host of life cycle celebrations, including baby-namings, Bar and Bat Mitzvah celebrations, Aufrufs in anticipation of forthcoming weddings, birthdays, anniversaries, and trips to Israel. All these celebrations are conducted within the embrace and support of the congregation that gathers faithfully to daven, learn and socialize together. All are welcome. “Regulars” are ready to help newcomers to find their way and become comfortable in the service.

Minyan Hadash

Minyan Hadash meets the 2nd and 4th Shabbat of each month at 9:45 AM in the Fishbein Chapel. The style of the minyan is lay-led, warm and informal. It is a traditional, egalitarian, and spirited service that includes a full Torah reading, a brief D’var Torah, and all of the other parts of the service. People of all ages are welcome and encouraged to participate.

Soulful Shabbat

Shabbat each week reminds us that meaning in our lives lies not in what we accomplish but in being part of the universe. Soulful Shabbat meets the 3rd Shabbat of each month at 10:00 AM for a Shabbat morning worship experience that creates a space for pause and reflection by simplifying and slowing down the traditional Shabbat service. Soulful Shabbat, led by Rabbi Alan Flam, emphasizes silence, quiet melody, meditation, and movement, along with traditional davening and Torah study.
