Announcements

Swan Point Cemetery Plots Available for Purchase

We are pleased to announce that plots in our new burial section at Swan Point are now available to Temple Emanu-El members. Please contact the Temple Office for more information. A special discounted rate is available through December 31, 2018, so act soon!

We need more Prayer Books and Humashim

We still need more copies of the Siddur Lev Shalem so that there are enough copies in the Sanctuary when we have celebrations. We also need more Humashim so that everyone can follow the Torah reading. If you would like to donate one or the other of these needed volumes, please contact the office at 331-1616. The Siddur Lev Shalem costs $36 and the Humash costs $72.

are available! Please do not let cost be a barrier!

The Tanakh: New Perspectives

Instructor: Michael Satlow, Professor of Religious Studies and Judaic Studies at Brown University

How should we read the Tanakh? Is it a source of ethical behavior and Jewish law? An accurate history of ancient Israel? A political document created to give authority to certain interest groups? A myth?
A literary fiction?

This course will explore these, and other, approaches to the Tanakh, highlighting the diverse ways in which this pivotal text has been, and continues to be, read throughout history.

MARK SULLIVAN BOOK TALK

Saturday, October 6, 2018
7:30 PM - Temple Emanu-El

99 Taft Ave, Providence, RI

Enter at the corner of Morris Avenue and Sessions Street

Temple Emanu-El and Holy Name Catholic Church present Mark T. Sullivan, author of Beneath a Scarlet Sky. Based on the true story of a forgotten hero, Beneath a Scarlet Sky is the triumphant, epic tale of one young man's incredible courage and resilience during one of history's darkest hours.

Pino Lella wants nothing to do with the war or the Nazis, but when his family home in Milan is destroyed by Allied bombs, Pino joins an "underground railroad" helping Jews escape over the Alps. Through a series of unexpected twists, Pino joins the German army and ultimately becomes a spy for the Allies from inside German High Command.

Author Mark T. Sullivan will discuss his book and his interviews with the real life hero of the story at this interfaith event. Refreshments will follow the talk and discussion.

Copies of the book are available for purchase right now in the Temple Office. It is $10 for paperback and $15 for hard cover. There will also be copies of the book for sale at the event.

Please RSVP by October 3rd:
teprov.org/form/SullivanBookTalk
or call: 401.331.1616

MERCIFUL CONVERSATIONS ON RACE

October 9, 16, 30

November 6, 13

7:00PM

Course fee: $36

Optional dinner served at 6:30pm

$8 per meal / $40 for the course

Legacy of Temple Emanu-El

Rabbi Eli Bohnen and
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Temple Emanu-El, in co-operation with the Rhode Island State Council of Churches, will hold a series of conversations on the dynamics of race in our culture. Merciful Conversations on Race explores how white privilege functions in society and in religious communities, and the ways that it negatively impacts people of color. The course seeks to create a positive and trusting space to explore why race conversations can be a struggle, provide help for overcoming this challenge, and opportunities to further racial reconciliation on both personal and systemic levels.

These conversations will be based on a curriculum developed by the United Church of Christ, with materials adapted for conversations in a Jewish context. Rev. Betsy Aldrich Garland and Pastor Chontell Williams of the Rhode Island State Council of Churches, along with Rabbi Wayne Franklin, will guide the discussions.

Temple Emanu-El

These conversations will be held at Temple Emanu-El,
99 Taft Ave, Providence

Please register for the course at teprov.org/form/ConversationsOnRace
or by calling 401-331-1616
