

NETWORKING May 23

Building professional relationships through networking is one of the most powerful and productive activity an individual can do to launch and manage a business.

In recent years. Speed Networking has emerged as a variation of tradition net-working formats. It has a fast-paced structure the allows participants to interact in brief one-to-one information exchanges - similar to the speed dating format.

Last Year's Speed Networking was a success, so join us this year.
