Barr Lake State Park Malinda Slaybaugh, left, guides a group of 20-25 people and about a dozen dogs on a two-hour walk on (the boat-ramp side of) the lake's perimeter trail, for The Great Waddle Walk-off post-Thanksgiving hike on Friday. Another group, without pets, walked on the gazebo side. Coming up Sunday: the final Pedal the Perimeter ride of 2016, beginning at 1 p.m. Daily Post photo

Order Cookies Count treats to help CASA help kids

Local residents can spread holiday cheer and give voice to children in our community by buying cookies.

The Cookies Count drive by Court Appointed Special Advocates of Adams and Broomfield Counties is under way through Dec. 9, according to a CASA news release. Receive six large holiday-shaped sugar cookies for every $20 donation or a platter of 24 large holiday-shaped sugar cookies for every $60 donation.

CASA suggests the cookies make great gifts for family, friends, neighbors, and co-workers during the holiday season, or enjoy these cookies at an upcoming holiday party to celebrate the season of giving.

Orders can be placed through noon on Dec. 9 by visiting casa17th.org. Cookies can be picked up the week of Dec. 12 at locations in Broomfield, Westminster and Brighton.

All proceeds will help CASA recruit, train and supervise more CASA Volunteer Advocates to sup-
