Dear Industry Colleague,

It's that time of year again when CAWA needs your help & support towards the future of our Aftermarket Industry. As experienced industry leaders it's our responsibility to continue to support & encourage today's generation as well as future generations of young men & women to join the Automotive Aftermarket Industry. How are we going to get the next generation interested in leadership roles in the Automotive Aftermarket? It's an important task and as industry leaders it's our responsibility to encourage & communicate these career opportunities! Training and educating the next generation of auto care professionals is crucial to the survival of our industry. We want to motivate & keep passionate young adults actively pursuing their dream in the Automotive Aftermarket Industry on track, despite any financial difficulty they may face.

I'm writing you on behalf of CAWA – Representing the Automotive Parts Industry, a Non-Profit Association which sponsors an Auto Care Industry scholarship program. In the past eight years, CAWA and its members have awarded over $80,000 in scholarships to dozens of talented and eager young adults who are the future Design Engineers, Lead Technicians, Warehouse Supervisors, Jobber Countermen, Sales Representatives, Entrepreneurs, and CEOs of our industry.

We have been tasked with gathering items to auction off at the CAWA annual dinner meeting held at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas on October 29, 2017. The proceeds from this auction specifically contribute to the CAWA Scholarship Fund.

We are looking for items (i.e. sports/concert tickets, airline tickets/frequent flyer miles, hotel/vacation home stays, wine baskets, gift cards, ski trips, electronic gadgets, etc.) that will excite and inspire attendees to bid and raise money to provide scholarships in the coming years.

We would be incredibly grateful if you or your company could please show your support by making a contribution. Please take a moment to complete the attached form, and we will be sure to give you or your company recognition for the generous donation.

Feel free to contact us with any questions. We look forward to hearing from you and hope to see you at the annual dinner!

With sincere gratitude,

David Wendt
