

Upcoming events

Sept. 8 – Nov. 12: Stage West I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change: is a musical comedy that explores dating, romance, love and marriage through a series of vignettes. In all, the show takes on the truths and myths behind romantic relationships.

Oct. 9 – 15: Wordfest a literary punch with over 70 programs over the course of the festival.

Oct. 10 – Nov. 4: Theatre Calgary Sisters – The Belles Soeurs Musical: Germaine Lauzon has just won — big time. She's won one million trading stamps, but things aren't about to get easy for her. Now, she needs to find out who she can trust and who's only out for her stamps. This musical set in 1960s Montreal is based on the play by French-Canadian playwright and novelist Michel Tremblay.

Oct. 13: Grey Eagle Casino Whose Live Anyway: Ryan Stiles, Greg Proops, Jeff B. Davis and Joel Murray leave their audiences gasping with the very witty scenes they invent before your eyes. Audience participation is key to the show, so bring suggestions and you might be asked to join the cast onstage. Whose Live Anyway performs some games made famous from the Emmy Nominated TV show Whose Line Is It Anyway plus new ones.

Oct. 13 – 14: Stampede Park Rocky Mountain Wine & Food Festival: Join thousands of local foodies at the Rocky Mountain Wine & Food Festival. At the festival, you can sample beers, wines, premium spirits and more, as well as food and desserts from local and notable restaurants. Vote for your favourites in the event's Great Big Taste Awards.

Oct. 13 –14: Southern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium Jerry Seinfeld: One of America's most beloved comedians and the star of the biggest TV show of the '90s, Jerry Seinfeld will make a two-day stop in Calgary this October. Seinfeld will bring his well-known, relatable, everyday life observations and comedy routine to Calgary audiences.

Oct. 13 – 28: Stampede Park ScreamFest: This is probably Calgary's scariest and most diverse Halloween event. Walk through multiple haunted houses — Clown Town, Bates Motel and What Lurks In the Dark are all worth visiting. Try your luck at Halloween themed carnival games like the Wheel of Misfortune and Feed the Demon.

Oct. 14: Spruce Meadows Oktoberfest Run Series: The 2017 Oktoberfest Run, is the second of three races in the 2017 Spruce Meadows Run Series. It offers a delightful 5km Chip Timed Run/Walk or the more challenging 10km course both set throughout the fresh Autumn grounds of Spruce Meadows.

Oct. 15 – Nov. 19: Heritage Park Homestyle Breakfast Buffet - Sundays: Enjoy comforting home style food at a comfortable price. Join us in the Wainwright Hotel, step into the past, and savour all of your breakfast favourites!

Oct. 17 – Nov. 4: Alberta Theatre Projects To The Light: This production is based on Virginia Woolf's novel To the Lighthouse. The play centres around a young painter who returns to her friend's seaside home after that woman — who was also a mother figure to her — has passed away. This play is about memories and making sense of chaos and tragedy.

Oct. 17: Heritage Park Dinner and a Movie – The Birds: Enjoy a movie-themed three course dinner in the Selkirk Grille, followed by a classic Halloween flick on the big screen in Gasoline Alley Museum.

Upcoming events

Oct. 18: Southern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium Chris de Burgh: The internationally known British-Irish singer-songwriter Chris de Burgh is returning to Canada for a tour across 16 cities this fall — his tour ends in Calgary.

Oct. 20: Fort Calgary Mafia Murders! It's the roaring 20's and that means you need the password to get into this exclusive party at the Speak Easy. The Godfather, his fashionista embarrassment of a brother, his bodyguard, and Fifi the lounge singer will all be there. Everyone has an agenda, and if you haven't made your bones yet, you could be called upon... so be prepared!

Oct. 23 – Nov. 11: Lunchbox Theatre Flight Risk: Hank Dunfield is about to turn 100 years old. The last thing he wants is to be reminded of his birthday, but Sarah, the nurse at his care facility, is keen to celebrate. As the two talk, Hank reveals that he was a tailgunner in the Second World War. Sarah listens to the veteran open up and talk about the experience, helping Hank to finally find peace.

Oct. 24: Bow Valley Ranch The Ghosts of Fish Creek Park: Go on a tour of the historic Bow Valley Ranch area and listen to stories of the ghosts that haunt the area. It's going to be dark, so there might even be a few ghost sightings. Bring along a travel mug so you can enjoy available hot chocolate.

Oct. 24: Heritage Park Dinner and a Movie – Beetlejuice: Enjoy a movie-themed three course dinner in the Selkirk Grille, followed by a classic Halloween flick on the big screen in Gasoline Alley Museum.

Oct. 25 – 28: Alberta Ballet Dangerous Liaisons: Based on Choderlos de Laclos' 18th century novel, Dangerous Liaisons will take its audiences into one of the most emotionally destructive dramas ever told.

Oct. 26 – 29: Heritage Park Ghouls' Night Out: A night of spooky fun for all the little ghosts and ghouls. There is storytelling, crafts, "ginger-dead-man" decorating, Witches Flying School and a family dance.

Oct. 28: Deerfoot Inn & Casino musical guest Big Sugar: wristbands at 6:30 p.m., show at 9 p.m. Tickets $55.00 – all general admission standing.

Oct. 28: Grey Eagle Casino Halloween Howler featuring The Headstones & Big Wreck with guests, One Bad Son and the Vidos.

Oct. 29: Grey Eagle Casino musical guest Gordon Lightfoot: Gordon Lightfoot has recorded 20 albums and has five Grammy nominations.

Oct. 31: Fort Calgary Town Hall Howler: Learn about ghost sightings and unexplained phenomenon. The evening also includes a séance where you can ask the otherworldly a few questions.

Oct. 31 – Nov. 2: Heritage Park Ghosts and Gourmet: Enjoy a frightfully delicious dinner in the Wainwright Hotel followed by a guided ghost tour through the streets of Heritage Park.

Oct. 31: Heritage Park Dinner and a Movie – Double Feature: Frankenstein and The Bride of Frankenstein: Enjoy a movie-themed three course dinner in the Selkirk Grille, followed by a classic Halloween flick on the big screen in Gasoline Alley Museum.

Nov. 1: Theatre Junction Grand DKL Unplugged: Join Dave Kelly for an evening of compelling conversations and intimate performances.

Upcoming events

Nov. 2: Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra Corb Lund joins the Calgary Philharmonic in a concert that is part hometown honkytonk and part blazing city lights. From rockabilly to Western swing, cowboy balladry to country-rock, this proud Albertan will have your cowboy boots a-stompin'!

Nov. 3: Theatre Junction Grand David Myles – Real Love: Real Love, celebrates the sound of the '50's infused with the classic David Myles style that has captivated fans across the country, and around the world. Myles will release Real Love Sept. 15, a month before he begins a cross-country Canadian tour.

Nov. 3-5: Broadway Across Canada Jersey Boys: The musical tells the true story of four, ordinary young men from ordinary homes in New Jersey who become one of the most successful groups in the history of pop music. Expect to hear well-known hits from the musical like "Big Girls Don't Cry" and "Oh What a Night."

Nov. 3 – Feb. 4: Jubilations Dinner Theatre Downton Abbey Road Songs of the Beatles: With more drama than you can shake a 20th century riding stick at, this show is guaranteed to make your family look normal. And it's all set to the music of the most British rock band in history; The Beatles.

Nov. 4: Deerfoot Inn & Casino Terry Stokes Hypnotist: Wristbands at 6:30 p.m., doors at 7 p.m. show at 8 p.m.

Nov. 7: Avenue Dinner Series #6 – Rouge: The Avenue Dinner Series celebrates Calgary's culinary scene. The final dinner of the 2017 Dinner Series is at Rouge, the beautiful, historic red house in Inglewood. Diners can expect a multi-course meal featuring local seasonal ingredients.

Nov. 7: Heritage Park Dinner & A Movie – Little Shop of Horrors \(1960\): Dine on a movie themed, three-course dinner in the Selkirk Grille Restaurant before heading over to Gasoline Alley Museum to enjoy one of our classic movies. A cash bar and popcorn will also be available to purchase during the film.

Nov. 9: Grey Eagle Resort & Casino guest Bob Saget.

Nov. 9: TELUS Spark Adults Only Night – Food and Chemistry: From flavour science to sautéing, there's no shortage of delicious science to explore. Get hands-on with food science and discover that the kitchen and the lab are not as different as they seem. Nom nom!

Nov. 9-11: Deerfoot Inn & Casino Tony n Tina's Wedding: Cocktails 5:30 – 6:30 p.m., Ceremony/Dinner 6:45 p.m. - $99 or $109 for VIP Cast Member Table (per show)

Nov. 11: Grey Eagle Resort & Casino musical guest Dallas Smith Side Effects Tour, with guests Lauren Alaina and Michael Ray.

Nov. 11 – Dec.16: Vertigo Theatre The 39 Steps: A beautiful spy is murdered and Richard Hannay must stay one step ahead of the killers, the police and a jealous husband in a quest to prove his innocence. Loaded with nonstop laughs, a talented cast of four playing over 150 zany characters, an on-stage plane crash, handcuffs, missing fingers and some good old-fashioned romance!

Upcoming events

Nov. 14: Heritage Park Dinner & A Movie – Forrest Gump: Dine on a movie themed, three-course dinner in the Selkirk Grille Restaurant before heading over to Gasoline Alley Museum to enjoy one of our classic movies. A cash bar and popcorn will also be available to purchase during the film.

Nov. 16-19: Theatre Junction Grand Intrinsic: The dancers' first experience integrating props into their work to create architecture in the space - exploring how external elements can affect the body in motion. Consider the number of ways paper is prevalent in our lives. It can provide information, entertainment, wrap a gift, and become art in itself. The focus of the work will be on shape, size, texture, and colour.

Nov. 17 – Feb. 4: Stage West Pure 90's: From Titanic and Jurassic Park to the Spice Girls and the Macarena, Stage West Theatre's fall and winter show, Pure '90s, riffs on many of the touchstones of this decade. It doesn't feel like that long ago that the World Wide Web exploded in popularity, The Simpsons were created and a Canadian team won the Stanley Cup.

Nov. 17-19: Spruce Meadows International Christmas Market: From world-imported items to hand-crafted gifts, the appeal of the International Christmas Market is simple: stress-free shopping in a beautiful, festive environment featuring unique gift ideas. Get into the spirit and listen to a choir of traditionally dressed carolers.

Nov. 18: Cochrane Tourism Cochrane Light Up: Come experience Cochrane Light Up along First Street from 4:30 -7:30 p.m. and welcome Christmas. Mrs. Claus shopping area for kids, ice carvings and hayrides. Free hot dogs and hot chocolate around the fire pots. Donations appreciated and Food Bank donations accepted. Christmas carols, children's activities and more.

Nov. 18: Grey Eagle Resort & Casino Beer Bacon Bands: Beer, Bacon and Music aficionados unite to sample cold brews, taste unique bacon creations and listen to awesome live music, while having fun with a couple thousand of their closest friends! It's a beer fest, it's a bacon fest and it's a music festival! BEER – BACON – BANDS!

Nov. 18-24: Calgary Opera The Barber of Seville: Count Almaviva plots Doctor Bartolo's downfall so Rosina will love him instead. He can only do it with the help of the town barber, Figaro. The audience will recognize many songs in this opera, including "Figaro's Aria."

Nov. 21: Heritage Park Dinner & A Movie – Planes, Trains & Automobiles: Dine on a movie themed, three-course dinner in the Selkirk Grille Restaurant before heading over to Gasoline Alley Museum to enjoy one of our classic movie selections. A cash bar and popcorn will also be available to purchase during the film.

Nov. 21 – Dec. 31: Alberta Theatre Projects Charlotte's Web: For Alberta Theatre Project's family-friendly holiday show, E.B. White's well-known story is brought to the stage. See how a young girl named Fern forges an unlikely friendship with a pig, Wilbur, and a spider, Charlotte. This is a musical version of the story is a heartwarming story of friendship and love.

Nov. 23-24: Deerfoot Inn & Casino Tony n Tina's Wedding: Tony n Tina's Wedding – Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 23, 24, 2017 – Cocktails 6:30 p.m. / Ceremony/Dinner 7:30pm - $99 per show – tickets for these two days can only be purchased thru our Sales Team at (403)723-4027

Nov. 24: Fort Calgary A Vegas Vendetta: Welcome to the High Roller Casino staff party. Join casino owner Nico Brundizzi, and his big-spending wife as they thank the staff for all their hard work. The only problem is that the life of the party has turned up dead!

Upcoming events

Nov. 24-26: Spruce Meadows International Christmas Market: From world-imported items to hand-crafted gifts, the appeal of the International Christmas Market is simple: stress-free shopping in a beautiful, festive environment featuring unique gift ideas. Joyful and lively entertainment will add to the special atmosphere. Get into the spirit and listen to a choir of traditionally dressed carolers.

Nov. 24 – Dec.24: Aspen Crossing Polar Express Train Ride (weekends, daily from December 14-24): Set to the sounds of the motion picture soundtrack, families are sure to delight in their journey to the North Pole, complete with hot chocolate and cookies served on board the train.

Nov. 25 – Dec. 23: Heritage Park Once Upon A Christmas: Take a step back into true holiday enchantment this Christmas in Calgary. Join us for a wagon ride, singing carols or visiting jolly old Saint Nick himself. Experience the magic of Christmas past as some of our historical family homes open their doors to share their Yuletide traditions.

Nov. 27 – Dec. 23: Lunchbox Theatre The Santaland Diaries: David is a struggling actor based in New York. To make ends meet, he takes a job as an elf in Macy's Santaland Village. But working with Santa and other elves isn't as magical as it's made out to be. In fact, things can get downright bizarre. This play is based on the comedic book by David Sedaris that speaks to his own experience acting as an elf in Macy's.

Nov. 28 – Dec. 24: Theatre Calgary A Christmas Carol: Now a Calgary tradition, this stage production of Charles Dickens' classic novel tells the tale of Scrooge, the ghosts of Christmas past, present and future, and how an eye-opening journey transforms the grumpy protagonist into realizing the life he needs to lead.

Nov. 30 – Dec. 2: Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra A Traditional Christmas: Celebrate the spirit of the season with a selection of sacred and secular holiday favourites performed by the Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra and the Calgary Girls' Choir. The beautiful Grace Presbyterian Church provides the backdrop – a favourite Calgary holiday tradition. Get your tickets early – these performances sell out every year!