

A Guide to Stress-Free Shipping

There are many stress-causing challenges that can come along with shipping freight and, as the endorsed shipping provider of MLA, PartnerShip has put together a detailed white paper designed to ease your mind and have you shipping like a pro! The subject of the white paper is based on information gathered directly from shippers about their challenges and concerns when sending freight. PartnerShip identifies your main shipping concerns and then provide tips and best practices to off-set the stress of those concerns.
