

Friday, October 12, 2018

Save the Date

Presbyterian Older Adult Ministries Network

Brings its annual regional conference to Worthington Presbyterian Church, Columbus OH

Theme: “The Best of Times: God’s Call in The Third Thirty of Life”

The one-day event will feature an opening keynote and 12 inspiring and thought-provoking workshops covering subjects such as:

- Dementia: a view from the Inside Out.
- Navigating the Journey of Aging
- The Hidden Value of Retired Ministers
- Spiritual Vibrancy in the “Third Thirty of Life”
- Social Justice and Older Adults
- Leaving a Legacy: the ways and means
- Relating to grandchildren who are spiritual but not religious (SBNR)
- And many more.....

As aging is independent of race, creed or denomination,
this conference is open to everyone.

Kindly organized by the Presbytery of Scioto Valley and hosted by Worthington Presbyterian Church with valuable sponsorship from Ohio Living (other sponsorship slots available). More details coming soon.