Norwood Clark, Chef/Owner, Darrow's New Orleans Grill

Darrow's New Orleans Grill is a family-owned food-service business serving Cajun/Creole cuisine in Carson, California. Norwood attended Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses and leads many fundraisers and local charities for the community. Several Southland residents with ties to Louisiana gathered in Carson at Darrow's New Orleans Grill on Sunday, August 28, 2016 to help raise money for victims of the flood-ravaged area of New Orleans, Louisiana. CBS Los Angeles's Adrianna Weingold attended the fundraiser. The chefs at Uncle Darrow's New Orleans Grill cooked up a feast all for a good cause. The recent storm in Louisiana left families like the Clarks, once again fighting to survive. During Katrina, his non-profit gathered and delivered 90 tons of supplies, and they're hoping to do the same for the people in Baton Rouge. The people behind Sunday's fundraiser are asking anyone who can donate to the victims of the Louisiana floods to please contact the Salvation Army.
