IMMANUEL

Broken and Loved, Saved by Jesus, Freed to Live

Living with Hope

Optimism and hope are radically different attitudes. Optimism is the expectation that things—the weather, human relationships, the economy, the political situation, and so on—will get better. Hope is the trust that God will fulfill God's promises to us in a way that leads us to true freedom. The optimist speaks about concrete changes in the future. The person of hope lives in the moment with the knowledge and trust that all of life is in good hands.

All the great spiritual leaders in history were people of hope. Abraham, Moses, Ruth, Mary, Jesus, Rumi, Gandhi, and Dorothy Day all lived with a promise in their hearts that guided them toward the future without the need to know exactly what it would look like. Let's live with hope.

- Henri Nouwen

This devotion is from Henri Nouwen's daily e-devotion -- a reflection I receive each day. I'm thankful for the chance to begin the day with God's word -- it gives me hope and changes my heart to see the presence of God in the people I meet and the situations I encounter throughout the day. The Daily Texts have arrived -- and there are just a few left! Christ in Our Home is available near the guestbook. Give yourself a gift in 2017 -- reading a devotion or Bible passage -- or sitting in silent meditation -- or praying -- can fill your heart and spirit along the way. In Christ, pk

HOLDEN VILLAGE
June 16 - 22, 2017

Holden Village is a beautiful retreat center nestled in the Cascade mountains of Washington State. Holden is the ultimate experience in "getting away from it all" -- guests arrive by boat as there are no roads to the village.

Every guest plans their own experience each day -- rest, read, hike, sip coffee, attend bible studies or learning events, try pottery or weaving, or fish.

To learn more about Holden Village, including weekly rates, check out www.holdenvillage.org

The village is opening after years of mine remediation. If you're interested, register soon. Please call PK for more info.
