

NNORC Case Manager

Jewish Family Services of NENY (JFS) is seeking a part-time masters level counselor to provide case management and counseling services to seniors through the Neighborhood Naturally Occurring Retirement Community (NNORC). Services can be provided in the JFS Albany office or in clients' homes.

This permanent part-time position, based in our Albany office, is roughly 18-20 hours per week. Responsibilities include assisting program staff by providing social work services, case management, administering client assessments, developing and implementing care plans, outreach and support of family members when necessary. The ideal candidate will have experience working with seniors in a community setting, dependability, commitment to confidentiality and strong organizational and interpersonal skills, as well as extensive knowledge of available services, supports, and resources for older adults in Albany County. A master's degree in social work, psychology, counseling, mental health counseling or a related field highly desired. LMSW, LMHC, and/or certification as an Aging Life Care Manager a plus. For consideration, please submit resume and cover letter. Resumes must be submitted within the body of an email or by postal mail—no attachments will be opened. The mailing address is NNORC c/o Jewish Family Services, 877 Madison Ave., Albany, NY 12208. JFS is a non-sectarian human services agency founded in 1854 with a mission to strengthen individuals, families and community.
