From the East ...

Brethren,

This is my final Trestleboard article of the year. It has been a fantastic year. I am confident in saying that the honor of sitting in the East as your Worshipful Master has been among the top few greatest experiences of my life, thus far. I am grateful for the sage advice and excellent examples set by those who came before me. I am grateful for the participation and enthusiasm of the Craft at large as we have navigated these waters together. The voyage has been eye opening to me and thoroughly educational. It is my fervent hope that I am leaving the Lodge in a better state than I found it. After all, that should be the aim of every Worshipful Master. Warming a chair, simply put, will not do in this age of contraction that we face.

Some brothers point to other fraternal organizations and lament that Masonry should adopt their methods and break away from its Ancient Landmarks so as to attract the men of this and future generations. I disagree. Freemasonry provides everything that is required for success. We must be willing to put our working tools into action every day and provide the sort of example to the young men who look to us for guidance which will embolden them to seek admission to the lodge. Their eyes of judgement, for better or worse, are upon the Craft. Further, let us be an example for a society that is hungry for stability and goodness.

. As we traverse the face of the earth, let us ever remember that final destination of our journey and conduct ourselves so that the brethren of that celestial lodge might welcome us in eternal friendship and brotherly love. Let us live our lives so that we may be lamented and celebrated at once.

I am looking forward to seeing all of you in lodge next year as I accept new challenges. I am confident that the new Worshipful Master will endeavor to continue upon the path that our lodge has blazed. If we all make ourselves cheerfully available for service to the lodge, then he cannot fail. Let us expect great things for 2019. May our Great God bless you all. May our Lodge stand forever. May the Craft be strengthened and the brothers united in purpose and joy.

Most respectfully,

Scott Spell, Worshipful Master

Brothers

Mars has two moons, Diemos and Phobos, dread and fear. The Earth today also has two new moons, Phobos and Echthra, fear and hate. They are always above us in the sky day and night continuously influencing our media, news and social media. They are on our TVs in our newspapers and on our social media

Everything on cable news is meant to divide us into two camps; liberals/conservatives, Democrats/Republicans, Progressives/Traditionalists and regardless of the side we are on we must hate the other side. We must fear what will happen if the other side "wins" (whatever that means).

Everything we see and hear electronically runs counter to Masonry and masonic thought. Masonry is about coming together not joining a side. Having an open mind and finding common ground. Taking steps together that move us toward common solutions to the problems and issues of the day.

When we pick a side and close our minds to everything but the dogma of our side, we pound a stake into our path. We tie our cable tow to that fixed position and halt our progress toward the light.

Try to keep an open mind. Remember the trowel is not to be used just with masons but with all mankind.

Do not fear what may happen. Remember in whom you place your trust. Can you truly trust if you have fear?

Love,

Dave Boddy SW

Brothers,

I will be keeping this Trestleboard article quite short as I hope to convey one simple message: thank you.

First, I want to offer my thanks to the Craft for the honor to serve in this chair. It is hard to believe that my year as Junior Warden will soon be coming to an end. I must say that I have enjoyed the year thoroughly and have learned much that I hope I can pass on to next year's Junior Warden.

Second, I want to thank Brother Bob Dake. If you haven't had the pleasure of working with Brother Bob, you are missing out. He is a workhorse! He is always reliable and is a pleasure to work with. Our lodge is very fortunate to have him as a member. Brother Bob, thank you for going above and beyond this year!

Finally, I want to thank W.: Scott Spell. W.: Scott held this chair before me and left the world's biggest pair of shoes to fill, as he is apt to do in all of his Masonic activities. W.: Scott, thank you for taking so much time with me at the start of the year to so clearly outline the duties of my office and steer me in the right direction. You were always available to me for consultation when I had questions or just needed an opinion on dinner ideas. Thank you!

So thank you, Brothers, for having the confidence in me to serve in this position. I hope I have executed the responsibilities of this office well. It was an absolute joy to serve each and every one of you this year. I look forward to many more years of service with the Fraternity.

Safe travels,

Greg Gulick J.W,

Brothers,
