From the East ...

Brothers,

If you had told me back in December 2019 when I was elected to this position that we would spend most of our time meeting online, I never would have believed it. But here we are, with the year half-way over and we've only managed to have three stated meetings this year due to the pandemic.

Despite this, we had an incredible amount of interest in Masonry from men in the community. Lately, every Monday meeting has involved us introducing ourselves to a new potential petitioner who feels called to be a Mason. This has been wonderful!

My brothers, when we are finally able to meet and labor in lodge again, we will have a great deal of work to do. And that day cannot come soon enough!

Please continue to stay safe!

Fraternally,

W.: Gregory Gulick

IT WAS JUST A LITTLE LODGE ROOM

Either George B. Staff or David Taylor

Just a quiet little lodge-room,
But a mighty force for good;
With its loyal band of members
Learning more of brotherhood;
Striving, stumbling, but progressing
Down a pathway toward the right;
Just a humble bunch of plain folks,
Reaching, seeking for the light.
Just a quiet little lodge-room
How it stirs the heart and soul
With the thrill of great endeavor
Toward a high and common goal;
With each pledge of faith and courage
To maintain the forward fight,
On the road that leads them onward
Ever onward to the light!

From the West

“Control over the uncontrollable”

Control is defined “the power to influence or direct people’s behavior or the course of events.” I imagine everyone who is reading this article feels a bit out of “control.” We have an unprecedented lack of control over most aspects of our life. Or do we? I offer that every day, we have the opportunity to turn this lack of control around and find one area that we can focus our positive energy on and make better. This, I feel, is one of the key components of our gentle craft teachings.

If you ever watch CNBC, as I do daily, you will see that home improvement stocks like Home Depot, Lowes and the like are all way up. Why is this, you may ask? One possibility is that we are all trying to illicit some type of control over our lives, that are so out of control. Our home, our surroundings, those are areas that we can illicit change and some sense of control. Personally, I’ve done more home improvement projects in the past 5 months than I’ve done in the past 5 years.

At some point, we will find an equilibrium with this new normal and be less negatively impacted by this lack of control. Stay strong, stay healthy and stay happy my Brother’s! You have more control over every day than you may think.

On the Level,

Michael St-Laurent

FROM THE SOUTH

"What is a Mason?"

A Mason is a man and a "Brother" who is

"Square" in all that he "Compasses": he has a "Rite" understanding and a firm "Grip", therefore he has no complaints to "Lodge" against life: by being a loyal "Apprentice" to duty, he becomes "Master" of himself and others, and thus whatever his "Degree", he fulfills an honorable career from his first "Initiation" into the "Order" of humanity, until he receives the final "Password".

Brothers,

This is a Great Poem with alot of Meaning.

I thought I would share it with you, my Brothers.

Secretary's Notes

7.02 Manner and Method of Election. - In the election of Officers, nominations shall be made in writing to the Lodge Secretary prior to the opening of the first Stated Communication in November. The written nomination shall also include a statement from the Brother making the nomination that the nominee has agreed to accept the position if elected. Discussions regarding nominees for office may take place among Brethren, but not in open Lodge. A majority of all votes cast, respectively, shall determine. In each succeeding ballot for the same office, when more than two members are voted for, the name or names of the Brother or Brethren having the lowest number of votes, shall, by order of the Master, be dropped; and all votes cast in derogation of said order shall not be counted (2015)

Brothers,

This is the time of the year we must start to consider who we want to lead the Lodge in 2021. You can get nomination forms online at the Florida Grand Lodge Web site, <http://grandlodgefl.com/>, get a copy from the Lodge Secretary, or hand written nominations are acceptable. Make sure to include a signed statement from the Brother nominated stating that he will accept the office if elected.

Mike Palenik P.M.

Secretary
