

A collage of nine photographs capturing various moments from a church service for children. The photos are arranged in a non-linear, overlapping fashion. The top-left photo shows a woman in a black dress leading a service, with children sitting on the floor in front of her. The top-middle photo shows the same woman leading the service, with children sitting on the floor. The top-right photo shows a large group of children and adults posing for a group photo. The middle-left photo shows a woman reading to children. The middle-right photo shows a woman reading to children. The bottom-left photo shows a woman reading to children. The bottom-middle photo shows a woman reading to children. The bottom-right photo shows a woman reading to children. The photos are set against a white background with a red border.

A large, round, silver-colored platter with a decorative black spiral pattern around the edge. The platter is filled with approximately 25 small, round, pumpkin-shaped cookies. Each cookie is a light orange color with a darker orange stem and a small green icing dot in the center. The cookies are arranged in a circular pattern, filling most of the platter. The platter is set on a dark wooden surface.

