

The Voice

When our Program Planning Team met in May to begin the design work for the Annual Fall Gathering, we decided that the theme for this event would be Prayer, Passion, and Persistence and the need for us to be bold in our actions. The more we work with this theme, the more I am coming to understand the significance of what this means for our mission as United Methodist Women. We, United Methodist Women, find ourselves in a cycle of radical change while we are at the same time honoring our history on the point of the 150th Anniversary of our organization.

Our past helps to keep us grounded as we live through this season of adjustment. By studying those who shaped United Methodist Women, it becomes evident that their stories were bold. Their stories were passionate. They were persistent, prayerful women. They were women who were not afraid to let their light shine in the midst of times when societal change was as turbulent as it is now. What an incredible inheritance! It caused me to consider how we might pay tribute to such a legacy and while pondering this question, I came across one of our ancient Christian stories.

Abba Lot went to see Abba Joseph and said to him, "Abba, as far as I can, I say my little devotion. I fast a little. I pray. I meditate. I live in peace. I purify my thoughts. What else can I do?" Abba Joseph responded by standing up, stretching his hands towards heaven as his fingers became like ten lamps of fire, and he said to Lot, "If you will, you can become all flame."

—Sayings of the Desert Fathers (Sister Benedicta Ward)

We can become all flame. Imagine how we might change the world if we became aflame with prayer, passion, and persistence, not just occasionally but constantly "be on fire in the Spirit as you serve the Lord!" (Romans 12:11 CEB)

As I am finishing up my four-year term as Miami Valley District President, I want to thank you for so many memorable moments. I am grateful for the friends I have made and all that we have accomplished together. We provided for women, children and youth through our Mission Giving. We built up the Community Care Fund to support District Mission Projects and Campership scholarships. We added a District Mission Project, Sycamore House. We started the Friends of Wesley Center to reinforce the work being done in the area of maternal and child health where there is great need in the community served by Wesley Center. We became more aware of actions we can take to create a healthier planet. We advocated and educated on issues like criminal justice, the heroin epidemic, and so much more. But our mission is not finished so shine on ladies, be prayerful, be passionate, be persistent as we grow spiritually while boldly continuing the work of love in our communities across the district.

In loving-kindness,

Did you know? We have representation on the Otterbein Lebanon Senior Lifestyle Community Auxiliary Board. Miriam Snyder, who is a member of the Centerville UMW and secretary to the district lead team, keeps us informed while helping to connect the residents of Otterbein with the greater United Methodist community. One of the ways they serve the residents is an annual picnic which took place on Thursday, August 31st. Thanks, Miriam, for making the presence of Miami Valley UMW felt at Otterbein.

From the General Secretary

MISSION IS GOD'S WORK

by Harriett Jane Olson

What does it mean to be in mission? You might think that the answer to this question, which is so foundational for United Methodist Women, and indeed for the whole church, would be clear and unambiguous. It turns out that this is not the case. We have mission statements, theological articles and documents, workplans and projects, many of which illustrate how our interpretations and understandings lead us in different directions.

As I participate in various conversations about mission, I am often reminded of orthodox theologian Archbishop Anastasios Yannoulatos' formulation: mission is following the Holy Trinity into the world. The statement is evocative for many reasons. First, it notes that mission is God's work—the fullness of God is engaged in reconciliation and redemption of the world. "In Christ, God was reconciling the world to himself ... and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation" (2 Corinthians 5:19).

Second, the statement reminds us that we are following God's lead. As disciples, we follow the way that Jesus taught and lived. We hear and respond to the cries of the needy, we call out injustice of religious and non-religious people alike, and we root ourselves in the core of the message: to "love God with all your heart, soul, mind and strength" through faith in Christ and to "love our neighbors as ourselves." As United Methodist Women—as disciples—we are called to live this out in action.

This is what we had in mind when we revised the description of why we as United Methodist Women raise funds, in our proposed changes brought to General Conference 2012. Now we are charged to raise funds "for God's mission in the world," continuing our focus on women, children and youth (The Book of Discipline, 1903.5).

Giving, praying, serving, advocating, supporting women in their development as leaders—these are all ways in which we follow God into the world, following Jesus' example as we participate in God's own work of mission. This is our reason and what empowers us to turn our faith, hope and love into action on behalf of women, children and youth around the world.

Harriett Jane Olson is general secretary and CEO of United Methodist Women.

What will your legacy be?

With great excitement, United Methodist Women is pleased to announce the Legacy Fund Endowment Campaign goal of $60 million. The Legacy Fund will undergird the capacity of future generations of United Methodist Women members to carry forward our mission of service and advocacy with women, children and youth in the United States and around the world for the next 150 years.

Achieving this ambitious and forward-looking goal will culminate United Methodist Women's five-year 150th anniversary celebration. We are already off to a great start, having secured $17.4 million for the fund — nearly a third of the campaign's $60 million goal!

"The Legacy Fund will provide a firm foundation that both builds on the generosity and commitment of women before us and enables future generations of women to engage in mission that makes a difference in the world by improving life for women, children and youth," said Shannon Priddy, president of United Methodist Women's board of directors.

United Methodist Women General Secretary Harriett Jane Olson applauded the organization's elected leaders for setting a goal that "inspires" and rallies the participation of every member. "In setting this goal, the elected leaders of United Methodist Women have, again, demonstrated the character of our movement," Ms. Olson said. "They have focused on what will be needed, committed themselves to the work of raising it and to ensuring that every member of our organization has a chance to participate. This energizes and inspires us all.

Together we will continue to find ways to make more mission possible."

The Legacy Fund is a permanent endowment with generated income that will enable United Methodist Women to distribute grants and scholarships, coordinate work with mission personnel and make needed upgrades to technological and communication systems and more. The Legacy Fund will ensure a regular source of support for these core expenses of being in mission.

At this special commemorative moment in United Methodist Women history, we are laying the groundwork for our next 150 years in mission through the Legacy Fund. We look forward to working with you to achieve the goal of the Legacy Fund Endowment Campaign.

United Methodist Women Servant Leaders

We asked you to remember the many women who showed you the value of being a United Methodist Woman, serving as mentors, teachers, advisors and friends. We present the special ladies you have sent us to honor and remember. They light the way to faith, hope, and love in action and taught us why we do mission. Thank you for sharing their legacy as Servant Leaders and thank you for supporting Mission Giving in their honor and memory.

Alice Sherick—Left a Lasting Legacy

Alice was a member of the First New Carlisle UMW. She served the district team, the conference team, and Mission committee in many capacities. Alice passed away June 7, 2017. She is remembered with much love. Sue Stutz, past West Ohio Conference President, spoke for those who knew Alice when she said, “Alice truly gave it her all when working with all of her United Methodist Women team members and each of us is truly blessed to have had Alice in our lives. I can just see her now working with other UMW who have gone before her. Enjoy Heaven dear, dear friend.”

Joanne Miller—Still Shining for Mission

A cherished St. Andrew United Methodist Church member since 1983, Joanne Miller has had a hand in almost every area of ministry. She has served in the nursery, taught children’s and adult Sunday school, church Membership Secretary, and a leader of Stephen Ministries. She is a member of the Gospel Light music group, Bridge club, two bell choirs, and a downtown theater volunteer. Wherever there is a need at church or elsewhere, Joanne is ready to contribute, provide transportation, and/or give support. She has belonged to United Methodist Women for twenty-five years and has been our local UMW Treasurer for the past fifteen.

Joanne’s early twelve years as a nurse in the Air Force may have much to do with her impressive self-confidence, poise, nurturing and outgoing personality. There is not a person who walks into our church doors that Joanne doesn’t purposely make it her mission to meet, greet, and encourage to return.

A LIVING MEMORIAL

Become All Flame!

As a way to show your appreciation and in keeping with our heritage, you are invited to give a gift in honor or memory of a special woman or group of women who planted the love of United Methodist Women in your heart. To make this even more special, we are looking for short stories about the person(s) you are honoring. The stories will be used as part of our Annual Gathering on October 14 at Tipp City UMC. If you have pictures to share, we would love to have them, too.

One hundred percent of these gifts go towards the Miami Valley District United Methodist Women Mission Giving. Your gift connects the present with our long history of being lights of hope in the lives of women, children, and youth. It will help assure promise for the many we serve.
