

Joachim Adenusi

Director of Inspirational Risk/Conrad Clark

Phone: +44 (7947) 182 934

Email: jadenusi@inspirationalrisk.com

Joachim is a former Director of the Institute of Risk Management (IRM), a chartered insurer (ACII) & certified trainer for the CII and IRM. With over 20 years risk management, Joachim's experience spans the financial services, health sector, public sector, manufacturing, agriculture consulting and academia. He has been recognized in the UK & Europe for his approach to Risk management, Joachim is now a keen promoter of the performance-based Enterprise Risk Management approach across the globe.

In his work, Joachim established Inspirational Risk/Conrad Clark Ltd., one of the fastest growing Risk & Management Consulting firms in Africa. He works as an independent Capital and Risk Management consultant advising major financial and non-financial services firms on implementing and embedding Basel II, III & Solvency II requirements. At IRMS/Conrad Clark Ltd, he is responsible for leading major ERM and change management programs, assisting organization's Board and Management Teams in developing best in class Capital and ERM capabilities, while complying with all necessary regulatory requirements. He has undertaken and led key projects related to:

- Risk framework, policies and validation, design and implementation
- Risk culture and maturity modelling and communications strategy
- Measuring performance in relation to budgetary assumptions and corporate strategy
- Economic and regulatory capital, ORSA, Risk appetite setting
- Emerging risks, Stress testing, Scenario planning, Business continuity & emergency
- Change Management and Human Capital Development
- Corruption, bribery, Anti – Money Laundry and Compliance risk assessment

Joachim is uniquely positioned in the delivery of risk communication using storytelling and has pioneered the use of African theatre/folklore to bring the message of risk management to life.

He holds a BSc & PGD in Actuarial Science and Statistics, MSc in Risk Management, and a Doctorate in Leadership in view. He is one of the IRM's top 10 Certified Fellows sits on the Audit & Risk Committee of Stewardship Services UK.