Cultures of Paris

AND

On Display

WASHINGTON & JEFFERSON COLLEGE

DATES
JANUARY 7, 2018 (DEPART US) – JANUARY 22, 2018

PRICE
$4500

UNIVERSITY APPLICATION DEADLINE
OCTOBER 23, 2017

WHAT’S INCLUDED
• Group airport pick-up and drop-off at Charles de Gaulle Airport
• On-site health & safety orientation
• Group welcome and farewell dinners
• Meal stipend
• Hotel with breakfast included
• Cultural activities
  - Museum Pass included
  - Jewish Art and History Museum
  - Arab World Institute
• Branly Museum
• Museum of “Man” (Humanity) (Musée de l’Homme)
• National Museum of Immigration (Cité Nationale de l’Immigration)
• Orsay Museum
• The Louvre
• Palais Galliera (GWS course only)
• Lapin Agile (GWS course only)

ACADEMIC INFORMATION
(Student Choose Only One Course)

HIS 292: CULTURES OF PARIS (4)
Cultures of Paris explores multicultural Paris with attention placed on the display of culture.

OR

GWS 292: ON DISPLAY: THE COMMODIFICATION, POWER AND RESISTANCE OF WOMEN’S BODIES (4)
Gender and Women’s Studies 292: On Display examines the cultures of Paris with special emphasis on displays of women’s bodies in art, fashion, media and performance.

APPLICATION
For more information or an application, contact:

HIS 292: DR. JENNIFER L. SWEATMAN
jsweatman@washjeff.edu
724-223-6161, Ext. 6161

GWS 292: DR. DANIELLE FICCO
dficco@washjeff.edu
724-503-1001, Ext. 3137

Washington & Jefferson courses taught by:

HIS 292: DR. JENNIFER L. SWEATMAN
jsweatman@washjeff.edu
724-223-6161, Ext. 6161

GWS 292: DR. DANIELLE FICCO
dficco@washjeff.edu
724-503-1001, Ext. 3137

INFORMATION IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE.