

A COLLECTION OF INCIDENTS, SOME ARRESTS, SOME CRIME TIPS, AND A FEW KNUCKLEHEADS

WEEKLY WRAP UP 2018

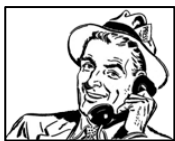

May 11, 2018

Disclaimer: The Weekly Wrap Up includes some but not all of the reports filed with SSPD over the past week or so. Any opinions or other comments that may be deemed “snarky” or even “sarcastic” are mine and do not reflect the City of Sandy Springs nor the SSPD nor anyone associated with SSPD nor anyone living in proximity of this establishment. This writing may contain spelling and/or grammatical errors, which are a direct result of my lack of paying attention in class. Sandy Springs borders the northern city limits of Atlanta meaning we get a lot of they get, only mostly in smaller portions. This is not Mayberry folks so just realize that things do happen, but fortunately, they happen infrequently.

Burglary

5699 500 block Granite Place

30350

5/5

The caller said he was arrested for threatening his roommate, (he said he had a machete to make him move out faster,) and during that time, someone came into his residence and took his TV, two laptops, clothes, cologne, and sunglasses. The roommate made the short list of suspects.

5796 200 block E. Belle Isle

30342

5/7

The caller said someone attempted to kick his apartment door open. The suspect failed to breach the door. A second suspect also unsuccessfully tried to get in. The victim had a Ring doorbell that captured the incident on video.

Suspect one is about 5'-9", thin, and suspect two is taller, about 6'-3", also thin. Both wore Adidas sweatpants with black and white stripes and both had their faces covered. Nothing was taken.

Report # 5984-A company representative said he received an e-mail from whom he believed was the company president requesting $38,684 be wired to an account at the First National Bank of Texas. The wiring process was unsuccessful so he mailed a check for that amount to 22nd Street in Mineral Wells, Texas. Soon after, he discovered the e-mail was fraudulent. He was able to put a stop payment on the check before it could be processed.

If this sounds familiar, you will remember we posted a similar scenario to another company representative who e-mailed a large amount of cash to the president of the company only to find out the mail was hacked. (2018-003630.)

But Wait!!! There's More!

Report # 5898-An employee of a financial group received an e-mail from her company CFO asking for twenty $100 iTunes cards for clients. She purchased the cards and attempted to photograph the card numbers to send on the e-mail but it failed to send. She realized the e-mail was not the same. The crook did not get the card numbers but the cards cannot be returned because the seals were peeled off. That said, I'm guess the first twenty new customers with this financial company will receive a free iTunes card.

Assault

5757 8610 Roswell Road

30350

5/6

A 40-year old Marietta woman told cops that she was assaulted by three other women outside Tony's Sports Bar at around 3 a.m. She identified one as a server at another local bar but did not know her name. She also claims her Rolex was taken sometime overnight. (Alcohol was involved.) The officer spoke to a man who identified himself as the caller's boyfriend. According to him, the fight began as he left Tony's with his girlfriend. She told him to "Stop talking to those bitches!"

Other Areas of Interest

Apparently, there was none this week.

Arrests

Cinco de Mayo (Related?)

On May 5 and early-morning May 6, DUI arrests were reported at 285, Northside Drive, Roswell, and Belle Isle Road, GA 400 at Northridge Road, and the 6000 block of Roswell Road. I suspect they are CDM related.

There were plenty of other arrest, mostly of people doing stupid-people stuff.

In a perhaps unintentional bid for the worst criminal disguise of 2018, Kerry Hammond Jr., 22, broke into a GameStop store in St. Marys, Georgia, at 1:19 a.m. on April 13, where he was captured on camera wearing a clear plastic wrapper (of the sort that holds bundles of bottled water) over his head. Even with the plastic "mask," WJXT reported, Hammond's face is clearly visible in surveillance video, and St. Marys police quickly identified him and captured him on April 17. Hammond already had two active felony warrants for his arrest for burglary and second-degree criminal damage to property. [WJXT, 4/16/2018]

Resorting to a low-tech, but possibly offensive strategy, Largo, Florida, detectives visited a dead man at Sylvan Abbey Funeral Home in Clearwater and attempted to use his finger to unlock his smartphone. Linus F. Phillip, 30, was shot and killed by Largo police March 23 after he tried to drive away from an officer wanting to search him. As part of their investigation, police said they needed to access and preserve data on Phillip's phone. Legal experts generally agreed the detectives had not broken any laws, but Phillip's girlfriend, Victoria Armstrong, 28, was less forgiving: "Nobody even calling us ... to let us know detectives were coming there at all is very disturbing," she told the Tampa Bay Times. "I'm very skeptical of all funeral homes now." [Tampa Bay Times, 4/21/2018]
