

Kim Hanrahan

Vice President, Global Tax Steelcase Inc.

Kim Hanrahan is the vice president of Global Tax for Steelcase Inc., the global leader in the office furniture industry. Steelcase helps create great experiences – wherever work happens. Its brands offer a comprehensive portfolio of workplace furnishings, products and services, inspired by nearly 100 years of insight gained serving the world's leading organizations.

Appointed to this position in June 2015, Kim serves as the principal expert in all aspects of taxation, including tax planning, tax law compliance, tax audit and controversy and GAAP/SEC reporting for income taxes. Her primary responsibility is developing and implementing tax strategies and systems that maximize profits and minimize tax and reporting exposures.

Kim has held positions of increasing responsibility within the Steelcase tax department since joining the company in 1992 as a tax analyst.

Prior to joining Steelcase, Kim worked for PricewaterhouseCoopers (f/k/a) Coopers & Lybrand (1985-90) as a staff and senior auditor and as a senior tax consultant. She also worked at Haworth, Inc. (1990-92) as a tax analyst.

Kim earned a bachelor's degree in business administration with a dual major in accounting and business administration and a minor in computer science from Aquinas College in Grand Rapids, Mich. She also earned a master's of science in taxation (MST) from Grand Valley State University in Grand Rapids. Kim is a certified public accountant registered in the state of Michigan. She is currently a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants (MACPA), the Tax Executives Institute (TEI) and serves on the Board of Trustees for Aquinas College and the Board of Directors for Inforum, a professional women's organization.
