

Hosting a Shabbat Morning Kiddush Luncheon at Congregation Shir Ami

Thank you for hosting an Oneg at Congregation Shir Ami

We know that it will be a very rewarding moment for you and your family

1. For most Shabbat Morning Services, plan for 15-20 people

2. Set-Up and Clean-Up

The hosting family is responsible for all set-up and clean-up.

Plan to arrive at 9:15am for set up The service begins at 10:00am

A table is provided in the Kiddush Luncheon room with linens and coffee/tea set up.
There are also 4 high cocktail tables and you can put small offerings on them as well.

Please bring all paper goods cold cups, napkins, paper plates, plastic utensils

All leftover food and serving pieces and décor that you bring must go home with you!

3. Challah | Kosher Wine | White Grape Juice for children

Each hosting family provides a challah, kosher wine, and white grape juice.

- Mini wine cups and serving trays are provided.
- Hosting family is responsible for pouring the wine and white grape juice into the cups before the end of the service.
- It is nice to have someone from your family stand at the entrance to the oneg with the trays of wine and grape juice to offer everyone a cup as they enter.

4. Food and Beverages

Selections are up to you and your creativity. It can be as simple or fancy as you choose.

Food Here are some suggestions

Bagels and... can be just cream cheese or more elaborate with fishes

Wraps

Tuna Salad / Egg Salad

Kugel

Fruit platter

Crudités

Cheese and crackers

Finger desserts

Beverages

Cold beverages - juice, seltzer, soda, whatever you choose

Many choose bottles of flavored seltzer

Coffee and tea with cups are provided

5. Hosting family is invited to Hold the Kiddush cup at the Kiddush Luncheon

It's nice to add flowers or other decorations if you choose.

All décor that you bring must go home with you!

Please consult with Rabbi Axe if you have any questions

junagada@aol.com | 203.253.6312