

2016 in Review

Together, in 2016, we supported the future of the profession, increased the visibility of the profession to the public, and preserved written records of important pieces of American and world history.

4 scholarships awarded to high-achieving court reporting students

1 grant awarded to a promising new professional reporter

Purple Heart VHP Day hosted by NCRF

8 Purple Heart recipients interviewed at the 2016 NCRA Convention & Expo in Chicago

Major media coverage of the event and court reporting profession in ABC7 Chicago, Atlanta Journal Constitution, Bend Bulletin, CBS Chicago, Chicago Sun-Times, Chicago Tribune, PCMA Convene magazine, and WGN TV

New Hard-of-Hearing Heroes Project, an expansion of NCRF's work with the Veterans History Project, interviewing veterans with hearing loss through the use of CART captioning

CORRINNE CLARK PROFESSIONALISM INSTITUTE

Corrinne Clark Professionalism Institute articles and seminar helped students and new professionals transition to a successful career

Numerous Legal Education presentations given to attorneys, judges, and law students on the importance of stenographic court reporting

The Angels program

continues to be the main source of support

Three $5,000 donations to NCRF's Major Gifts Program

66 record number of Angels signed up for 2017 at the 2016 NCRA Convention & Expo

We had a big 2016, but with your support, our 2017 will be bigger and better!