

TCD LEARNING DAY

Tools and Strategies for Conservation and Development in the Amazon: Lessons Learned and Future Pathways

Tuesday, October 3, 2017
Reitz Union, Rooms G310 and G320
8:30 am - 5 pm

TCD Learning Day is organized and led by a group of graduate students from the TCD Program and it is complementary to the workshop Tools and Strategies for Conservation and Development in the Amazon. It is open to the TCD community and participants of the workshop. Through an open format that emphasizes informal discussion and engagement, its objectives are:

1. Present and discuss experiences and solutions for addressing conservation & development challenges in the Amazon.
2. Reflect on how research can effectively contribute to conservation and development.
3. Promote networking between TCD students, faculty, alumni and partners
