

Looking for God in all things.
Where are you looking? What are your questions?

Loyola Marymount University presents the

2018 LMU Youth Theology Institute

Monday, June 18, through Friday, June 22, 2018

In the tradition of St. Ignatius of Loyola, LMU is a place where young people come to “find God in all things.” If you are a high school student (rising sophomore to rising senior) with big life questions about God and the broken world around you, come for a week to LMU’s campus and ask those questions in community with other high school students.

Participants stay in the LMU residence halls, engage in serious theological reflection and discussion with the guidance of LMU faculty and student mentors, and visit Southern California organizations that promote justice as well as local faith communities from different cultural traditions. The weeklong conversation about God, the common good, and social justice culminates in a group film project

FOR MORE INFORMATION OR TO APPLY FOR THE 2018 LMU YOUTH THEOLOGY INSTITUTE, CONTACT YOUR HIGH SCHOOL OR YOUTH LEADER OR VISIT OUR WEBSITE:
WWW.BELLARMINE.LMU.EDU/YOUTHTHEOLOGYINSTITUTE/

Cost: $80 non-refundable registration fee ($30 for students with need) covers the week.

The LMU Youth Theology Institute is made possible by a grant from Lilly Endowment Inc.

LMU | LA
Loyola Marymount
University