

Philip B. Haney

Prepared January 07, 2016; Updated February 13, 2016, April 20, 2016 & July 09, 2016

Forty years experience in the Strategy and Tactics of the Global Islamic Movement based on Quranic Arabic, with parallel strong focus on Counter Terrorism.

Thirty years experience in International Travel (20+ countries), from China to Europe and Central/South America, but with particular emphasis in the Middle East.

Founding Member of the Department of Homeland Security, Customs & Border Protection (CBP); in March of 2003; retired with 15 years of Federal service on July 31, 2015.

Deep experience in Threat Analysis and Intelligence while serving as a CBP Officer; conducted numerous interviews of individuals with potential links to terrorism; credited with many cases, and finding 300 individuals with potential links to terrorism at the National Targeting Center (NTC).

Additional deep background in Research and Data Analysis, using case-study approach to diagnose problems.

Numerous TV & Radio appearances, including Guest Host for Sean Hannity, and before Congress

Numerous publications and cited, both as a former scientist, and in the Counter Terrorism field

Extensive familiarity with Arabic/Middle Eastern culture, politics & the religion of Islam, including the Quran.

Adept at learning languages, and at developing relationships with people of other cultures.

Professional consultant for local, national and international clients in both private and government arena since 1984.

Current Member:

Association of Former Intelligence Officers (AFIO)

Federal Law Enforcement Officers Association (FLEOA)

