The Call and the Challenge
Keep in Touch

In this noisy,
chaotic world,
we need to keep in touch
with God,
with each other,

This preached retreat
begins Sunday at 6 p.m. with a celebration of the Eucharist.
Retreat includes
presentations,
opportunities for
contemplative prayer,
and daily Eucharist.

Pope Francis on personal holiness

An excerpt from Gaudete et Exsultate:
"The important thing is that each believer discern his or her own path, that they bring out the very best of themselves, the most personal gifts God has placed in their

Father Jim Bergin

Retreat Facilitator

We welcome Father Jim Bergin as facilitator of our annual summer retreat at The Canticle. His homilies and his visits to The Canticle are always inspirational. We look forward to hearing him speak on personal holiness and contemplative prayer.

Father Jim is currently the spiritual director at Divine Word College in Epworth, Iowa, where he began teaching philosophy in 1976. He has also served as the formation director and the spiritual director at the college. For a time he served at the Chicago
