Epiphany Lutheran Church Offers Special Advent & Christmas Services

Collierville, Tennessee, USA – Epiphany Lutheran Church is offering several special worship opportunities during the upcoming holiday season.

On Wednesday evenings during Advent (December 5, 12 and 19), all are invited to join Epiphany for Midweek Advent Services at 6 pm. The service will last approximately 45 minutes. All midweek offerings will go to Lutheran Disaster Response to assist with U.S. wildfire relief efforts.

On Sundays during the season of Advent, Epiphany's worship will include Lighting of the Advent Wreath, scripture and music to help worshipers reflect on the anticipation that is part of the Christian tradition before Christmas. "Advent is a season for quiet reflection on our lives over the past 11 months, to peacefully and prayerfully pay attention to God at work in our lives. We anticipate both the coming of the Christ Child on Christmas, and we anticipate Jesus' promised return, when peace will reign over Creation. In Advent we live in the 'both-and' time of now and the future, aware that God's constant, unconditional love for us never changes," says Pastor Monica Weber.

Epiphany will also be holding a family-friendly Community Candlelight Christmas Eve service at 5 pm in Schaeffer Memorial Chapel at Kingsway Christian Church. Everyone is encouraged to bring bells to ring during the singing of Christmas carols - all are welcome!
