Epiphany Lutheran Church Planning Free Community Pet Blessing and Picnic

Collierville, Tennessee, USA – In honor of St. Francis of Assisi Day, Epiphany Lutheran Church invites all pet owners to bring their furry and feathered friends to a free Blessing of the Pets on Saturday, October 7, 2017 from 3 – 6 pm. The event will take place at Epiphany's Community Garden, located on the corner of Wolf River Blvd. and Bray Station Road in Collierville. Brats, hotdogs and sides will be available for humans, followed by s'mores for dessert. Pets will be treated to complimentary snacks provided by the Collierville Canine Club and Hollywood Feed.

"The Blessing of the Pets is always fun for animals and their humans," said Pastor Monica Weber of Epiphany. "All creatures, especially our pets, are entrusted to us. They bless us with friendship, and new friendships we make by caring for them. All are welcome to join us, with or without an animal guest."

During the event, Epiphany will also be dedicating the new "Eagle's Roost" shade structure built by local Eagle Scouts for the church.

Attendees should bring a lawn chair as well as beverage of their choice, and be sure to provide for their pet as well. For the safety of all animals and humans attending, pets should be leashed or secured in a carrier.

Epiphany appreciates the support of co-sponsors Hollywood Feed in Collierville and the Collierville Canine Club.
