

Marisa Yow - Supply List - Oil Painting 2 pgs

First and Foremost the Brand does matter, don't get store brand paint. There are different grades of paint Student Grade is what you want. Here are some brands that are good: Gamblin, Winsor Newton ( Winton) others are a bit more expensive.

*No Water Soluble Oil Paints of Mediums

I will go over all supplies in class so don't worry, PV ART's in right across the street if you need something.

Titanium White – larger sized tube

1.25 sized tubes for other colors are fine.

Yellow Ochre	Alizarin Crimson
Burnt Sienna	Raw Umber
Cerulean Blue	Viridian Green
Cadmium Yellow Medium	Burnt Umber
Cadmium Red Light	Paynes Grey
Cadmium Red Deep	Colbalt Blue
Ultramarine Blue	Lemon Yellow
Raw Sienna	Ivory Black

Optional colors are always encouraged, but not required.

Palette

You will need one of the following, the choice of which is yours.

Masterson Sta-Wet Palette Seal Box with disposable pallet paper or if your choose a Glass Pallet. If Glass get it cut 12 x 16 it will fit into the Mateson Sta-wet box and it will be very helpful for transportation. If glass you may need to purchase a razor to scrape your pallet, I will demonstrate.

Mediums

Small bottle of refined linseed oil

Small bottle of Odorless Turpentine ( not the Turpenoid Natural !!!!)

3 glass jars with screw on lids .... ( baby food jars, small pickle jars, jam jars, ...)

Brushes

Minimal of 6

Flats, Filberts, Brights & Rounds in a variety of sizes from #3 to #12 for oil pick out a few sizes you like the feel of *Soft nylon brushes for acrylic are not required but you may like to pick one up to try out to see how it works

Palette Knife

A small metal triangle one, the plastic ones break too easy.

Canvas

pack canvas papers for studies and color studies are good they might say acrylic paper it comes in a pack

Stretched 12 x 16in will be our first project you may want to purchase the other sizes after we speak

Canvas Board you can practice on, but it will not hold up over time and I personally don't like it.

Other Materials

Pencil and eraser

Rags or paper towel for clean up

Disposable gloves latex
