Objective: To understand the central role of Akhlaaq in Islam and prepare the congregants for inculcating the virtues in their lives.

- Akhlaaq is not just character; it is the principles and morals which reflect faith.
  - Akhlaaq is the practical manifestation of one’s faith and thus emanates from the core beliefs of the believer
  - As such, the most important of al akhlaaq is tawheed, and it is around it that all the other characteristics revolve
    - “His companion said to him while he was conversing with him, “Have you disbelieved in He who created you from dust and then from a sperm-drop and then proportioned you [as] a man?”” [18:37]
- Allah (SWT) created humans in goodness, and perfecting character is returning to that goodness
  - “So direct your face toward the religion, inclining to truth. [Adhere to] the fitrah of Allah upon which He has created [all] people. No change should there be in the creation of Allah. That is the correct religion, but most of the people do not know.” [30:30]
  - “We have certainly created man in the best of stature;” [95:4]
- One of the core aspects of the messenger-hood of the Rasool (SAW) was teaching good character:
  - Yahya related to me from Malik that he had heard that the Messenger of Allah, may Allah bless him and grant him peace, said, "I was sent to perfect good character." (Muwatta’ Malik)
- The Rasool (SAW) is the model of perfect character
  - “And indeed, you are of a great moral character” [68:4]
  - “There has certainly been for you in the Messenger of Allah an excellent pattern for anyone whose hope is in Allah and the Last Day and [who] remembers Allah often.” [33:21]
- Tips for Khateebs
  - Try not to make people feel like they are completely deficient in Akhlaaq. Build up; don’t dress down
  - Try not to use “values” in place of “virtues” or “ethics” in place of “morals.” Values are subjective; virtues are taught by Allah and His messenger (SAW).
