

Frank returned to CBRE in 2016 as Managing Director and market leader for both the Memphis, TN and Jackson, MS offices.

Previously, Frank spent four years as Principal of SPUR Commercial in Austin, Texas. At SPUR Commercial, Frank specialized in site acquisition, tenant representation, and the acquisition and development of investment properties. During his extensive career, Frank has worked on the brokerage side of commercial real estate with industry leaders Trammell Crow Company and CBRE | Memphis, the former affiliate office in Memphis.

Outside of CBRE, Frank has served as a past Director of the University of Mississippi's Real Estate Advisory Board where he initiated the Ole Miss National Real Estate Alumni Directory. Frank is also a founding member and volunteer for the Rudner Foundation in Memphis and an active participant in the Memphis Chamber's Chairman's Circle and Memphis' MSA Commercial Alliance.