

CLIMATE ACTION FORUM

A COMMUNITY INTERFAITH EVENT
SPONSORED BY TEMPLE ISAIAH

SUNDAY • NOVEMBER 12TH • 4-6PM • TEMPLE ISAIAH
FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

LEARN, ENGAGE, ACT!

Understand the science of climate change, the moral imperative for action, and how you can participate. Be the Change!

The Temple Isaiah Environmental Committee emphasizes our responsibility to protect the environment and leave the earth in good health for future generations. The work of this committee includes fighting climate change, greenhouse gas reduction, supporting clean air, water and protecting public health.

Temple Isaiah

945 Risa Road

Lafayette, CA 94549

www.temple-isaiah.org

Forum Speakers

Andrew Gunther, Ph.D.

Environmental Scientist

Executive Coordinator of the Bay Area Ecosystems Climate Change Consortium, Member of the Board of Directors of the Union of Concerned Scientists, Advisor to the Alliance for Climate Education and The Regeneration Project. Ph.D. in Energy and Resources from U.C. Berkeley.

Rev. Canon Sally Bingham

Canon for the Environment in the Episcopal Diocese of California, lead author of Love God Heal Earth, awarded the Audubon Society Rachel Carson Award in 2012 for environmental leadership, founder and president of the The Regeneration Project, which is focused on its Interfaith Power and Light (IPL) campaign, a religious response to climate change that includes a national network of over 18,000 congregations in 40 states.

Wei-Tai Kwok

Solar Technology Expert, President, Sustainable Lafayette

COO of Amber Kinetics, a utility-scale flywheel energy storage technology company. Previously, COO of Andalay Solar, VP Operations NRG Energy, and VP of Marketing at Suntech Power. Trained speaker with Al Gore's Climate Reality Project. Wei-Tai holds a degree in economics and political science from Yale University.