

Scoville Memorial Library Events September 2016

Weekly Programs

Wednesdays at 10:30 am (September 7, 14, 21, 28)

Story Time with Miss Molly

Story time for toddlers and preschool aged children focuses on a different theme through stories, singing and crafting fun! The five early literacy practices are playing, talking, singing, reading and writing (scribble/draw) -- and we will be rocking them all! Bring your own snacks.

Meets in the Children's Room

Thursdays at 1:30 p.m.

Bridge is really back in the library! If you want to stimulate your brain then bridge is the way to go, as played by Bill Gates and Warren Buffet. They won't be in the Wardell Room to join you but a few other dedicated folks would love for you to participate.

Meets in the Wardell Room

Monthly Programs

Saturday September 10, 3:00

Saturday Book Club. Understanding our Muslim Friends. The Library is collaborating with the Salisbury Congregational Church in a six-part series called Peace Through Understanding. We will be reading a book linked to the month's group.

"Persepolis" by Marjane Satrapi. Satrapi tells of her life in Iran from the age of 10 when the Islamic Revolution of 1979 reintroduced a religious state, through the age of 14 when the Iran-Iraq war forced her parents to send her to Europe for safety. This story, told in a graphic format with simple, but expressive black and white illustrations, combines the normal rebelliousness of an intelligent adolescent, with the horrors of war and totalitarianism.

Meets in the Tower Room, Main Floor

4:00

A Wilderness Transforming, the 275th Salisbury Anniversary exhibit by Salisbury

Association Historical Society. Talk presented in collaboration with the Scoville

Memorial Library. This fall marks the 275th anniversary of the Salisbury Town Charter and the first town meeting. In order to celebrate the opening of a new exhibit at the Salisbury

Academy Building, Salisbury Association Historical Society member Lou Bucceri will discuss the theme of the exhibit, A Wilderness Transforming, and remark on the rapid transformation of the town during the mid-eighteenth century. Meets in Wardell Room, Lower Level

Scoville Memorial Library, 38 Main Street, Salisbury, CT 06068

Unique Programs

Saturday, September 17, 11:00

Papermaking for Kids

Bring old and colorful scrap paper. We will soak this and transform a rainbow of pulp into your own handmade paper. Recommended for children ages 18 months and older.

Papermaking is messy, so dress your little one (and yourself) in old clothes.

Tuesday September 20, 6:00

Author Jay McInerney discusses his new book “Bright Precious Days”. The White Hart Speaker Series presented in collaboration between The White Hart Inn, Oblong Books & Music and the Scoville Memorial Library. In his first novel in ten years McInerney returns to the Manhattan 'it' couple from his previous two novels Brightness Falls and The Good Life- Corinne and Russell Calloway - who still feel as if they're living the dream that drew them to New York City in the first place: book parties, art openings, high-society events, jobs they care about, twin children, a loft in TriBeCa and summers in the Hamptons. But all of this comes at a fiendish cost. Instead of chasing personal gain in this incredibly wealthy city, Corrine devotes herself to feed its hungry poor, and she and her husband soon discover they're being priced out of the newly fashionable neighborhood they've called home for most of their adult lives, with their son and daughter caught in the balance.

Jay McInerney is the author of Bright Lights, Big City, Ransom, Story of My Life, Brightness Falls, The Last of the Savages, Model Behaviour, How It Ended and The Good Life, as well as a number of acclaimed (and often funny) books on wine. Meets at the White Hart

Saturday September 24- 10:00am

Margaret Foran Ackley, Licensed Health Insurance Professional, will present a brief PowerPoint presentation and discuss details of enrolling in Medicare. Appropriate for those applying for the first time or for members considering changing their current coverage.

This program is designed to teach the basics of Medicare and help users make informed health care decisions. It will detail different parts of the program, eligibility requirements and enrollment windows. Attendees will have an opportunity to ask questions about coverage options and finding coverage that best meets their health and financial needs. Each attendee will receive "Medicare Made Clear - Getting Started," an easy-to-use reference for understanding Medicare options and Medicare frequently used language.

Margaret Foran Ackley is the principal at Ackley Insurance Agency servicing Litchfield County and surrounding communities. She is a community speaker on Medicare Made Easy and specializes in the personal approach of taking the mystery out of Medicare options.

Meets in Wardell Room, Lower Level
