

Dear Friends,

I read a new translation this week of an oft-loved Psalm. "God is our refuge and strength, a help always near in time of great trouble. That's why we won't be afraid when the world falls apart." (Psalm 46:1-2a) With all that is going on in just my PERSONAL world, including friends, loved ones and church family, I truly cannot imagine how anyone faces the day without knowing that God is real and active in our lives. Thanks to all of you who encourage me and others with your strong faith. Join us in worship this week as we hear a message of hope. Please read Lamentations 3:22-24 to prepare.

Blessings,

Julie

Things to remember

Don't forget to send your pictures to Vickie Gray for the new directory. Digital pictures can be sent to vcgray58@gmail.com or you may bring pictures to the office to be scanned. If you do not have a picture you would like to submit, pictures will be made Nov 18, 25 and Dec 2 during Coffee and Conversation or after worship in the GIFT classroom.

If you have not submitted your devotion for the Advent Devotion book, Julie needs it by tomorrow!

We need your help to decorate the campus for Advent and Christmas after church on Nov. 25. Watch for further details.

If you would like to purchase a poinsettia to honor or remember someone and help decorate our sanctuary during Advent and Christmas, forms will be available this week in the bulletin. The cost is $15 and they will be placed in the Sanctuary on Dec. 9.
