

Dear Friends,

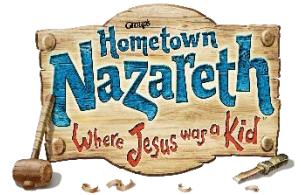

Since we just celebrated our nation's independence, I wanted to remind everyone of some of the freedoms that we can thank God for as American Christians. First and foremost, the freedom to believe, to worship and to live out our faith. There are so many people that do not have this privilege. We also have the freedom to pray - anytime, anywhere, and in any way. Since many of us travel during the summer, I pray that we will all take advantage of these freedoms, even when we are not at Nazareth. I will be at the beach with my family next week, and we are blessed to have our secretary Debby Keaton's husband, Rex, filling the pulpit that day. Rex is an Ordained Minister. Gayle Mason will be the Elder on Call and can be reached at 590-7340. This Sunday, I will continue with the series of my favorite passages, so please read Micah 6:1-8 and I look forward to seeing you all.

Blessings,

Julie

Things to remember

Don't forget to register for Bible School! DJ has many exciting things planned!

Joint Adult Sunday School class in the Fellowship Hall this week will be taught by Jan Ellis. We will continue our study, Grace in a Tree Stump which explores Old Testament stories of grace. Read Genesis 4:1-16.

The Safety Committee still needs 6-8 more volunteers to be Observers on Sunday. If we can get more volunteers, folks will not have to serve as often. We have put considerable time and effort into making Sunday mornings safe at Nazareth, so please pray about this vital way to serve this ministry. Contact Herb Respass at 590-3383 if you are interested.

Join us at The Carpenter's Table Saturday, July 14th from 9-1.
