

Dear Friends,

Because Sunday is Veteran's Day, I have felt led to preach about our heritage and the rich blessings that we have thanks to those that went before us. The Holy Spirit led me to Psalm 16, which I invite you to read before worship. The Psalm reminds us of all that we are blessed with when we trust in God for protection. In my studies, I came across a meaningful thought from Thomas McCreesh. "Prayer is not informing God of something unknown but reminding ourselves of Divine love and protection as a basis for growing in faith." See you Sunday!

Blessings,

Julie
