

Dear Friends,

This Sunday we will celebrate Pentecost during worship. This commemorates the day that the promised Holy Spirit breathed on Jesus' followers after his ascension and began the spread of the Christian Church. Please wear RED to worship and come filled with the Spirit! I will be preaching from Acts 2.

I will be away on Study Leave next week, attending a preaching conference in Washington, D.C. My friend Allyson Helvie and I are driving up right after church so pray for our safe travels. This is a wonderful opportunity to get new ideas for preaching and teaching from the best and the brightest preachers in America. We begin by worshipping together in Washington National Cathedral! Vickie Grey will be the Elder on Call while I am away so let the church office know if you need pastoral care. Blessings,

Julie
