

SHABBAT MATTERS

SACRED RESPONSIBILITY: TEACHING OUR CHILDREN WITH KAY KOSAK ABRAMS

SATURDAYS, JANUARY 20 & 27, 2018
 9:45 – 11:15 AM
 IN THE LIBRARY

Join Kay Kosak Abrams, for a discussion of Achrayut/Responsibility: Values, Concepts and Behaviors.

How do we pass along the Jewish sensitivity towards accepting responsibility—to care, to act, to step up? How will we transmit this work ethic, this feeling of noble mission, to our young citizens so that it becomes a significant part of their innate sense of self and their vision of the other?

Kay Kosak Abrams is a psychologist and Director of the Center for Family Psychotherapy, in Rockville and Kensington, MD. Kay will share excerpts from her talk given at the Jewish Federation of Greater Washington's 2017 Early Childhood Education Conference.

For more information contact Sarah Wesson at sarah.wesson@adatshalom.net or 301-767-3333