California Legislative Black Caucus Now Accepting African-American Leaders of Tomorrow (AALT) Applications
Applications due April 27, 2020

Pasadena (CA) – Assemblymember Chris Holden and the California Legislative Black Caucus announced the availability of applications for the African-American Leaders of tomorrow (AALT) conference – a four-day residential summer program from July 8 – 11, 2020, for high school sophomores and juniors on the campus of California State University Dominguez Hills (CSUDH). The conference applications are due Monday, April 27, 2020 and open to students in the 41st Assembly District.

Selected applicants will receive training in leadership, college preparedness, career development and civic engagement by attending daily workshops in a college environment. Students will be housed on the campus of CSUDH. Meals, program materials and transportation during the conference will be provided at no cost to the participants.

Applications are open to students who are currently a high school sophomore or junior with a 2.5 or higher GPA, and are in good academic standing as of January 1, 2020. Students, who are interested in careers in government and/or have demonstrated leadership involvement in school or their community, are encouraged to apply.

ALL APPLICATIONS AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS MUST BE RECEIVED BY 5:00 PM ON MONDAY, APRIL 27, 2020.
