

RDGA FOUNDATION HOSTS FIRST ANNUAL FORESIGHT GOLF TOURNAMENT AT GENESEE VALLEY

Junior golfers pose with their trophies following the first annual ForeSight Golf Tournament at Genesee Valley on August 20.

A group of 20 junior golfers from the RDGA Foundation's ForeSight program, ages 10-17, teed it up for the first annual ForeSight Golf Tournament at Genesee Valley Golf Course on Saturday, August 20.

The tournament - which included several active juniors in the first year program designed to introduce golf to new generations of golfers - featured nine holes of golf on Genesee's South Course, followed by a three-hole putting contest on the practice green.

Play was organized into four groups, based on age - two each for boys and girls.

Winning the Boys Group 1 competition (for younger players) was Jimmy Marrotta, who shot 41 in the 9-hole tournament, and had a 9 in the putting contest. Adam Polito was second, posting a 48 on the course and a 7 for the putting contest.

In the Boys Group 2 division (for older players), Kevin Boncaro was the winner with a 9-hole score of 38 and a putting contest score of 6. Colby Reixinger was second with a 38 and 7.

In the Girls Group 1, Emily Ferguson was first with a 9-hole score of 49 and a putting score of 7. Trudy Smith was runner-up with a score of 59 and 8 in the putting contest.

And in Girls Group 2, Madison White won the division with a score of 42 and a putting score of 8. Erin Bennett was runner-up with scores of 49 and 7.

Coordinated by the RDGA Foundation Inc., the RDGA, the Monroe County Parks Department, Kless-Meyers Management and area schools and athletic departments, ForeSight collects golf equipment to be used to teach golf in schools, and, with the assistance of area physical education teachers, students with an interest in the game are identified and nominated to participate in the ForeSight program.
