

RDGA Foundation 2018 Scholarship Award Application

To be considered for a scholarship, the applicant must submit a completed 2018 application with the following information to the RDGA Foundation Scholarship Department by May 15, 2018:

- A transcript of the applicant's secondary school record including ACT/SAT scores.
- Transcripts from all college/university work completed since high school.
- A copy of the Transaction Pages showing the Expected Family Contribution from the FAFSA.ed.gov website. Applicant must have filed the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) in order to copy the Transaction Page.
- At least one letter of recommendation from someone (counselor, clergy, coach, employer, community member, club member, etc.) who knows the applicant.

The RDGA Foundation will only review completed applications that contain all required information. Interviews will be scheduled for May-June. Scholarship recipients are limited to a maximum of one award. If awarded a scholarship, funds will be sent directly to the college/university.

Confidentiality: All information received by the RDGA Foundation will be held in strict confidence and used solely for the selection of scholarship recipients.

All applicants will receive consideration without discrimination because of race, creed, color, sex, age, national origin or disability.

Completed applications and all the required information must be in the RDGA Foundation Office by May 15, 2018.
