Here is a list of Haggadah resources that you might find of interest to add a social justice voice to your seder. They have not been vetted by Beth Shalom. And we apologize for any missing from the list.

HIAS' Haggadah supplement on the global refugee crisis:
<https://www.hias.org/passover2017>

Repair the World and the Jewish Multiracial Network created a Haggadah insert, "The Four People," about engaging with racial justice as individuals and as a multi-racial and multi-ethnic Jewish community: <http://werepair.org/wp-content/uploads/2017/03/Four-People.pdf>

American Jewish World Service (AJWS) Global Justice Haggadah:

Uri L'Tzedek (the Orthodox Social Justice movement) Pesach supplement:

The Shamayim V'Aretz Institute's (the Jewish animal welfare movement) Pesach supplement: <http://www.shamayimvaretz.org/passover-supplement.html>

The 2016 Jewish Social Policy Action Network Haggadah is entitled "The Immigration Crisis: A Pesach Seder Reflection for 2016": <http://pjvoice.org/wp-content/uploads/2016/04/2016-Haggadah-Supplement.pdf>

The Shalom Center's: Passover, Earth Day, & the Global Climate Crisis Supplement: <https://theshalomcenter.org/node/1374>

Truah Haggadah resource on mass incarceration:
<http://www.truah.org/resources/crying-out-against-mass-incarceration-haggadah-supplement/>

Another good social action resource for Pesach is freetheslaves.net, which is concerned with ending contemporary slavery and human trafficking.

And AJWS just posted a short piece on ten lessons Jewish activists can learn from the Haggadah <https://ajws.org/blog/ten-lessons-haggadah-jewish-activists/>
