Pre-Tour: Ultra-luxe Blue Train from Cape Town to Pretoria

October 23-27, 2019

The Blue Train is one of the world's great luxury trains, running between Cape Town and Pretoria. The route 994-mile journey is done over three days, with two nights on board and a sightseeing stop in Kimberley.

The train, operated by the state-run Spoornet, is gorgeous in every detail, from the golden brown of the walls, to the upholstered closets to the "B" logo just about everywhere. Butlers can be called any time from your in-room phone.

The unfolding journey is shown on a TV screen in the club car and on one of the TV channels in guest suites. Service is professional and experienced.

Meals are served in the 42-seat diner in two seatings and include delicious African and continental cuisine. Meals are multi-course and tasty; the wine list is outstanding. Breakfast or dinner can be served either in your compartment or in the dining car. Snacks and drinks can be served in your compartment at any time.

Accommodations on board the Blue Train:

De Luxe suites: DeLuxe Suites are 8 square meters (86 square feet) and feature twin side-by-side beds with shower, sink and toilet. There are a limited number of double-bedded suites which feature a  $\frac{3}{4}$ -sized bath tub with handheld shower.

Luxury suites: Luxury Suites are 10.25 square meters (110 square feet) and feature side-by-side twin beds or double bed, as well as bathroom with shower, sink toilet and bathtub.
